Messe München International will carry out an internal restructuring of its subsidiary MMI India Pvt. Ltd. to further strengthen the company. Katharina Schlegel will assume responsibility of the company's finance, controlling, purchasing, human resources, and operations sections as Chief Operating Officer (COO) on February 1, 2014. The new structure will allow CEO Darryl Dasilva and Deputy CEO Bhupinder Singh to concentrate on developing and expanding the current trade-fair portfolio. Igor Palka is stepping down from his position as MMI India Deputy CEO in order to fully devote himself to his duties as CEO of bC Expo India Pvt. Ltd.

MMI India has quickly developed from a start-up to a medium-sized company with strong growth in recent years. The decision to strengthen the team in Mumbai with Ms. Schlegel's expertise is a reflection of the Munich-based parent company's support and focus on the objectives of the MMI 2016 strategy.

Since starting at Messe München in February of 2009, Katharina Schlegel has set up and developed the division International Business Management. As Head of International Business Management for India, Turkey and South Africa, she has extensive experience in steering and coordinating the foreign subsidiaries of Messe München, as well as establishing new locations and developing existing ones abroad.
